Dr. Nafith Al-Hersh is a seasoned senior banker with over 28 years of experience in Islamic and conventional banking, financial markets, and the investment field. He has a lot of international certificates that enrich the solid and long track of his practical and theoretical knowledge and experiences. He earned the International Certificate in Wealth and Investment Management. (ICWM) from London, UK (2022), the Certified Islamic Specialist in Capital Markets (CISC) from General Council for Islamic Banks and Financial Institutions, Bahrain (2013), and the ACI-Dealing Certificate from Paris, France (2012). In addition, he earned an investment advisor certificate from the Jordan Securities Commission (2009) and a broker certificate from the Amman Stock Exchange (2003). He was selected among the top 500 leaders who make up the Islamic economy in the Islamica 500 from Brussels, Belgium (2015).

He has published research articles in both local and international refereed journals such as Scopus, Elsevier, and Web of Sciences (Clarivate). His area of research specialization is Islamic finance, Islamic cultural finance, capital markets, and international management.

Finance (NACIF) is to foster the sharing of global knowledge. It is an international forum for Islamic finance scholars and practitioners to discuss and collaborate on the various innovative practices that are being used in the Islamic finance industry. Ultimately, the goal of NACIF is to facilitate sustainable finance practices that benefit society at all levels.

About
Speakers
Committees
Agenda
Accommodation
Registration
FAQ

P.O. Box 339
Barker, TX 77413-0339

Contact Information
(832) 517-2988
Email - nacif@guidancecollege.org